

Quake!: Disaster in San Francisco, 1906

By Gail Langer Karwoski

HAVE FUN!

DISCUSS

Talk through your thoughts.

- Talk about a time when you were scared. What did you do? Tell someone about a time when you were brave.
- Ask people you know if they have ever experienced a disaster like an earthquake.

CREATE

Make an experience of your own.

- Read the Author's Note at the back of the book. Make a model of an earthquake with materials around your home.
- Choose a favorite scene from the book and draw a detailed picture.

IMAGINE

Use your imagination to explore.

- Explore what parts of this book are fact and what parts are fiction. Make a chart and share it with someone. Do they agree with your ideas?
- Learn more about natural disasters.
- Imagine this story taking place in the present. How would it be different? Write/draw your thoughts.
